i live on a hill covered with oak trees and i have 2 goats—
Daisy and Cassandra.
Cassandra's face is cockeyed and her eyes are very strange.
one night i dreamed she was a Mexican gypsy telling fortunes . . .

my life is a crystal teardrop.
there are snowflakes falling in the teardrop and little figures trudging in slow motion. if i were to look into the teardrop for the next million years, i might never figure out who the people are,
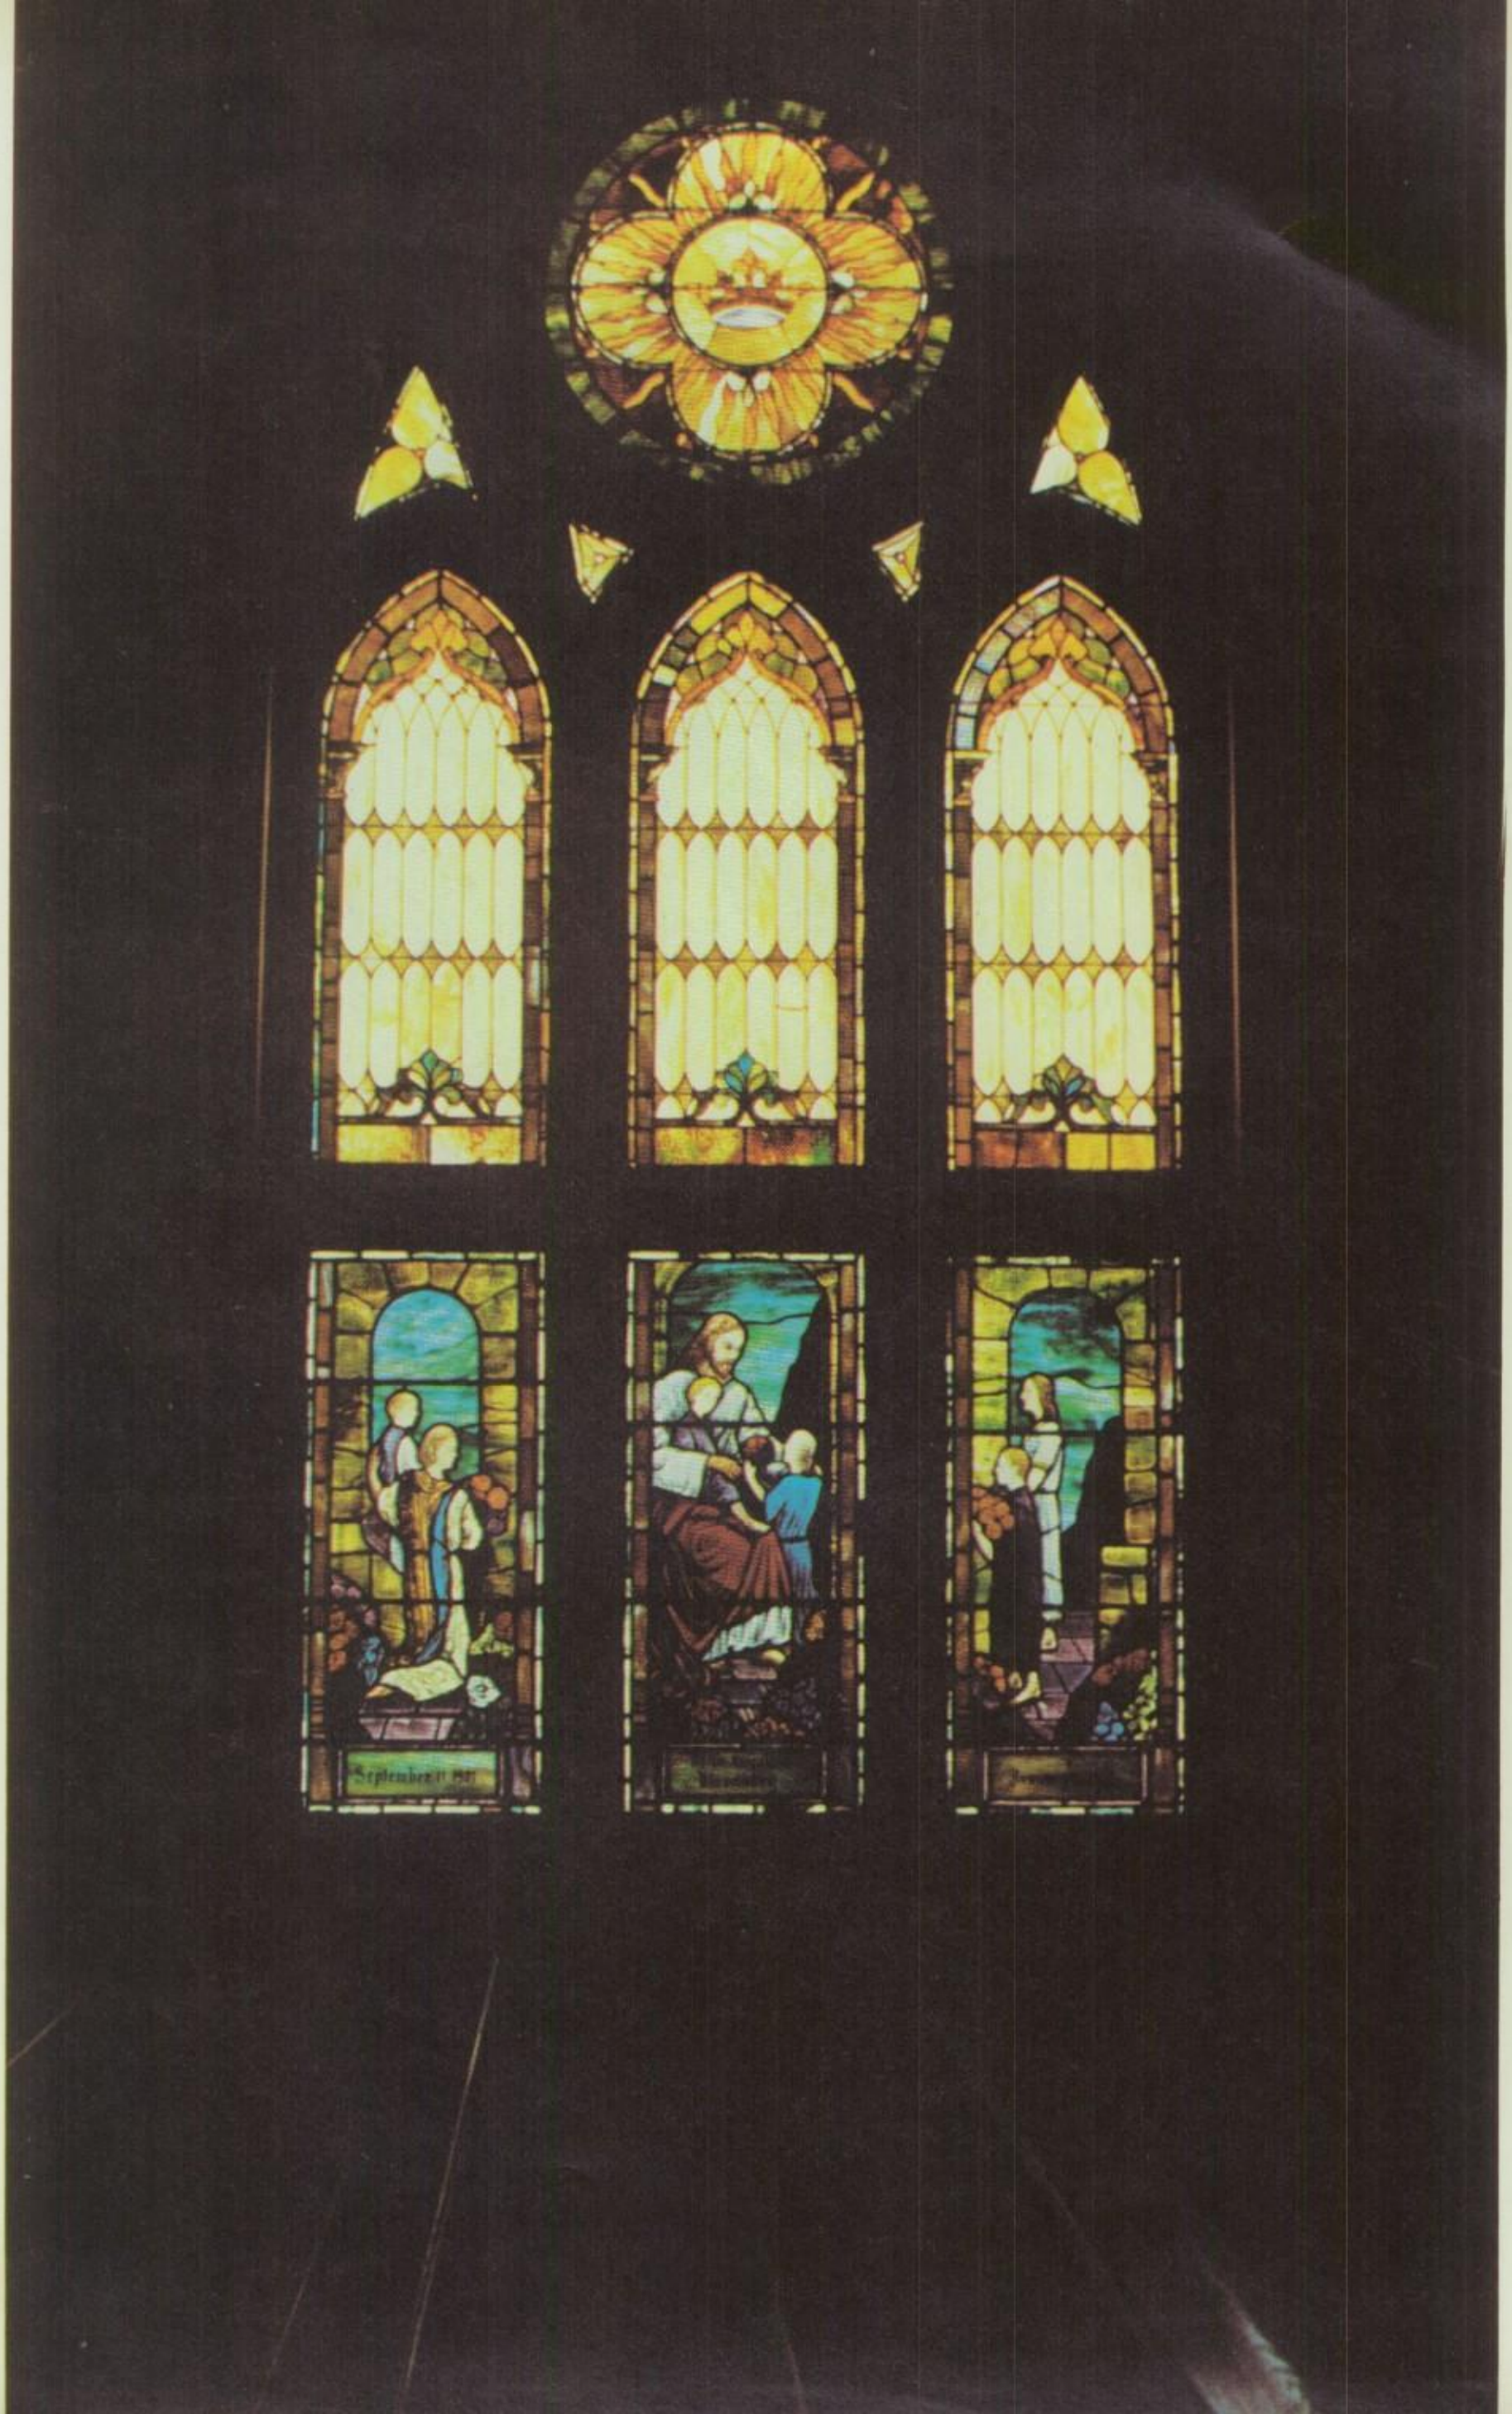
and what they are doing...



sometimes i get lonesome for a storm.
a full-blown storm
where everything changes.
the sky goes through four days in an hour, the trees wail,
little animals skitter in the mud and everything gets dark and goes completely wild. but it's really God playing music in his favorite cathedral in heaven shattering stained glass playing a gigantic organ thundering on the keys perfect harmony perfect joy . . .

Lord Buckley
the beautiful moon-man comedian said to a cocktail audience,
"m'lords and m'ladies... beloveds...
would it embarrass you very much
if i were to tell you... that i love you?"
and they all laughed.
how could anyone believe it?

because here we are,
waiting on the eve of destruction with all the odds against any of us living to see the sun rise one day soon. . .

Bill, I've enjoyed all the times we've had and talked, and together. What can I say but that you're a truly sincere person with a lot of beauty. I may be on such a beautiful day and we can things that have last we saw each other.
I love
Darla
P.S. Don't forget to be kind you, dear reader-

you are amazing grace.
you are a precious jewel.

only you and i can help the sun rise each coming morning.
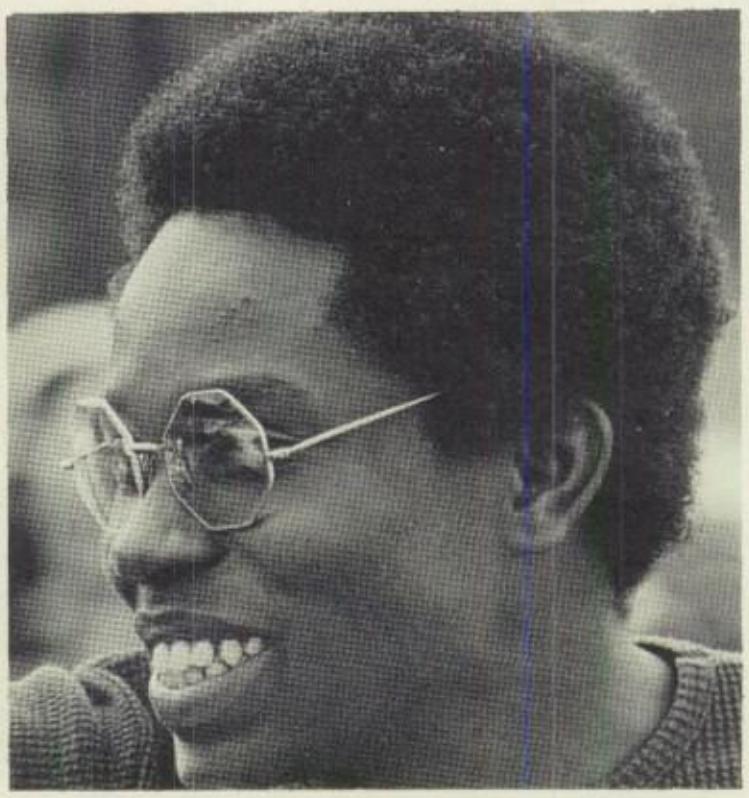
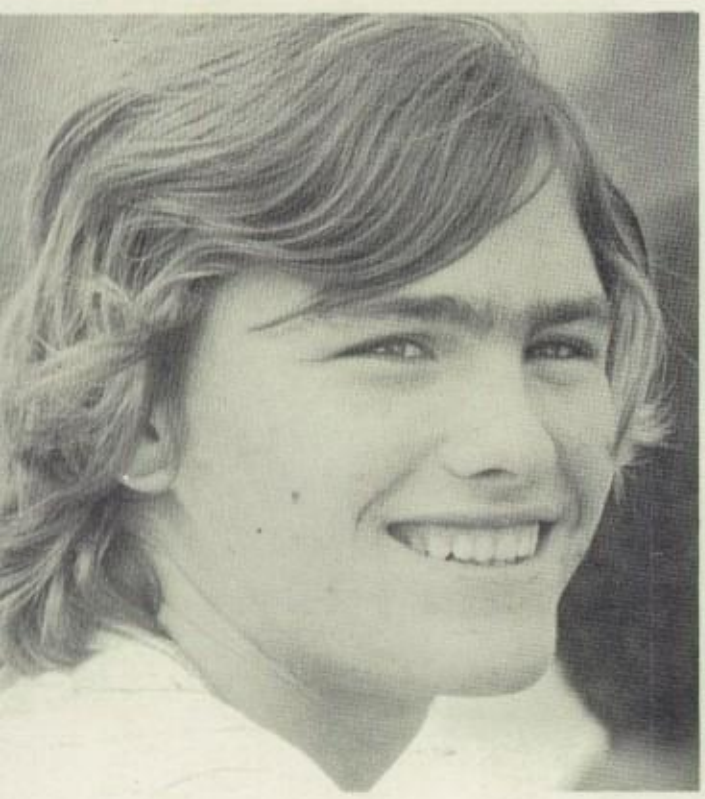
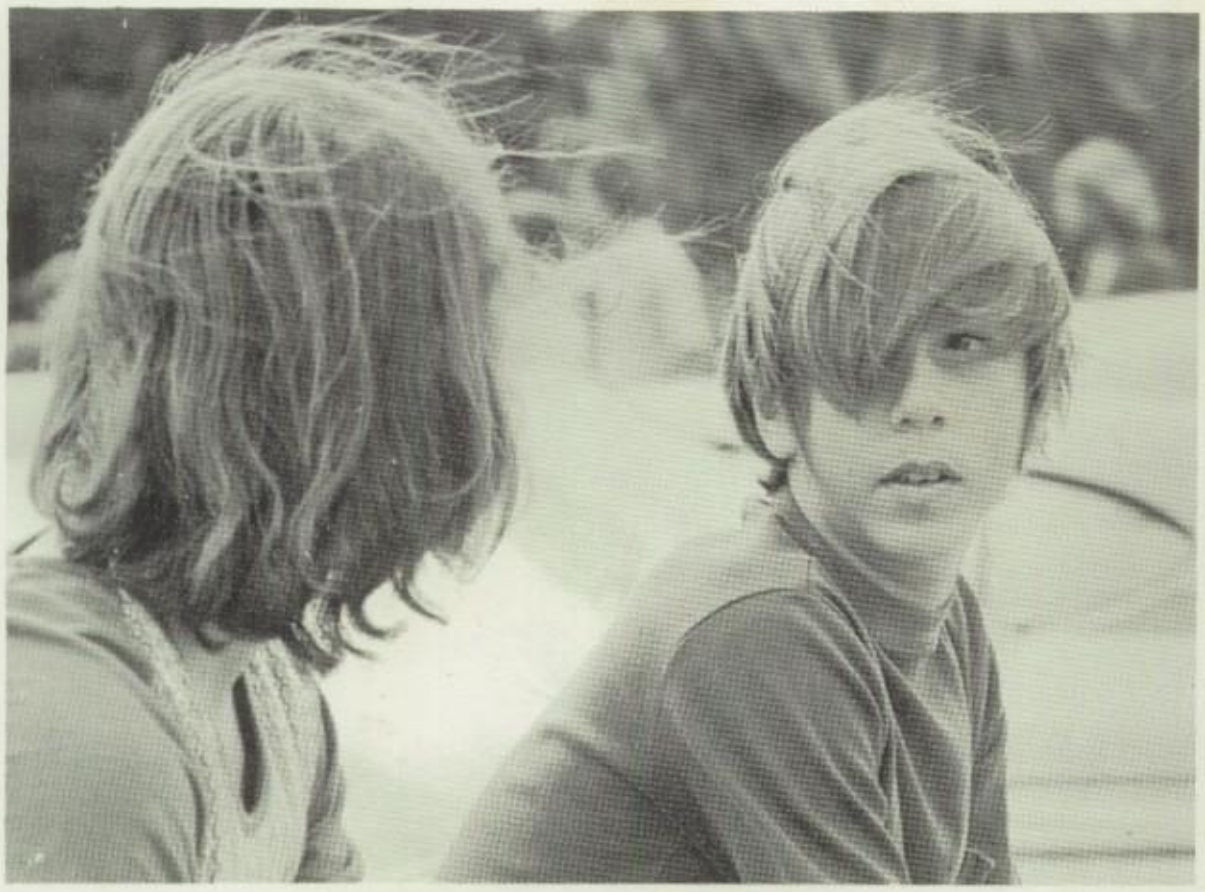
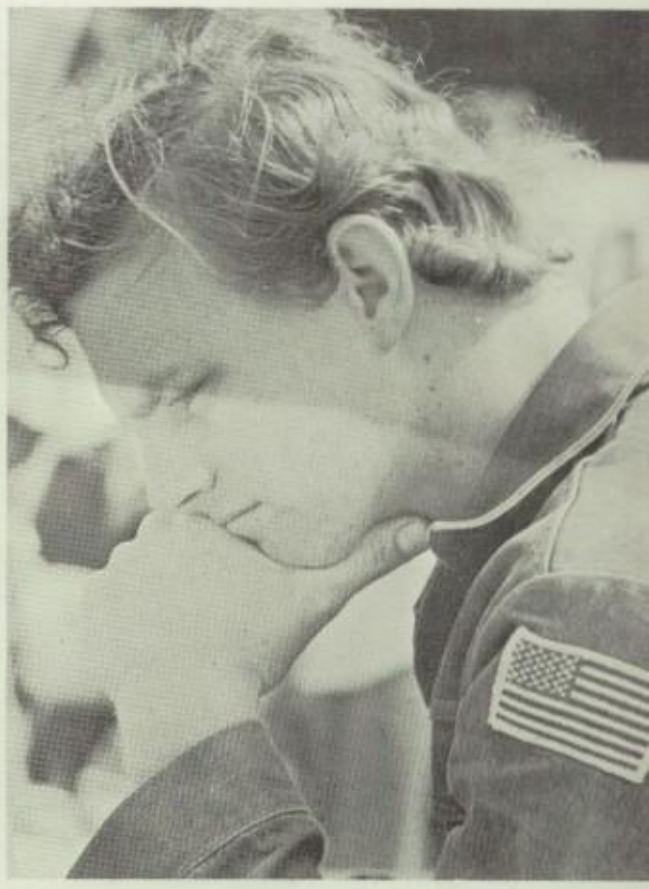
if we don't,
it may drench itself out in sorrow.

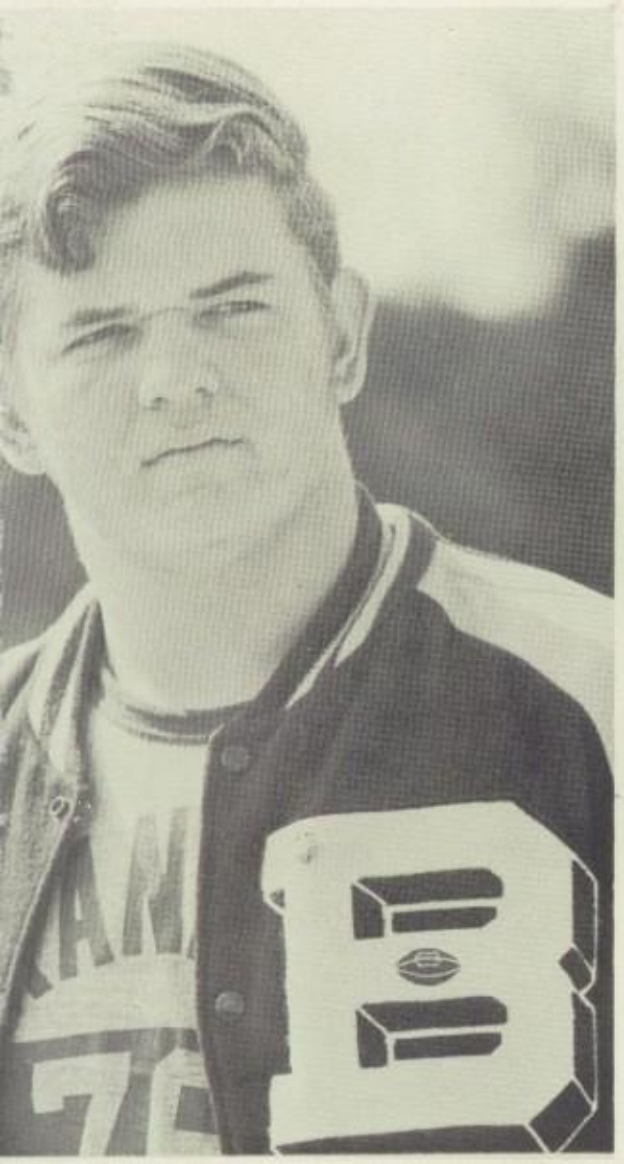








you-
special, miraculous,
unrepeatable, fragile,
fearful, tender, lost,
sparkling ruby emerald jewel,
rainbow splendor person.
it's up to you.



would it embarrass you very much
that i love you?

Diversity –

Even in the grasses . . . although following an inherent pattern – each blade of grass takes the air – the water – and the energy of the sun and develops an individualistic life – in freedom and beauty . . .

INVOLVEMENT

. . . Then can I walk beside you I have come here to lose the smog and I feel just like a cog in something turning. . .

. . . Maybe it's the time of year or maybe it's the time of man And I don't know who I am but life is for learning . . .

. . . We are starlight we are golden. . .

. . . And we've got to get ourselves back to the garden.

— Joni Mitchell

YOUTH FOR UNDERSTANDING

. . . Hands across the water — heads across the sky . . .  -Paul & Linda McCartney

Through Youth For Understanding (YFU), five exchange students came to Brandon High this year. They are: Cristina Fornander, from Sweden; Heli Valtonen and Riita Hakkineen from Finland; and Susi Wehrli and Henry Lanz (not pictured) from Switzerland.
What better way to grow?

This year's annual can-stack broke with tradition —
The sophomores won!

Our numerous pep assemblies aspired to inspire the BHS football team.

VETERAN'S DAY

The snarling hateful war comes
And with it takes
All
Those who are brave
enough to fight
Let us honor
Them
Those who are brave
enough to object
Let us respect
Also.

The Brandon High School art department busily prepares for Christmas Card Lane. Of the eighteen entries seen on Bayshore Blvd., ten belong to BHS students.

True Beauty is a rare thing
It's something that pleases the senses.
Something that can't be found — just anywhere.
True beauty is found only in sincere and truthful people . . .

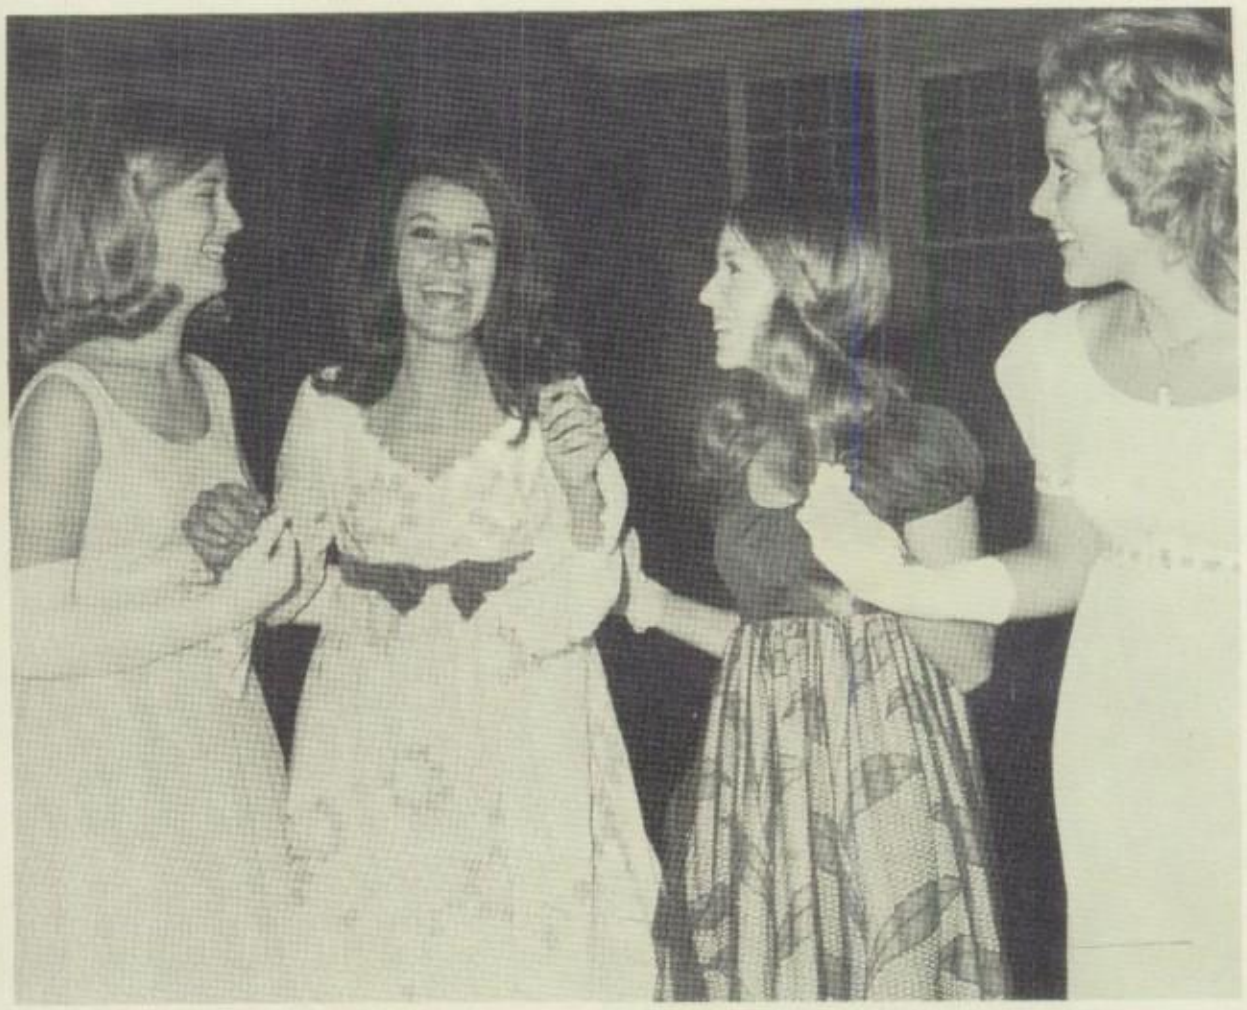
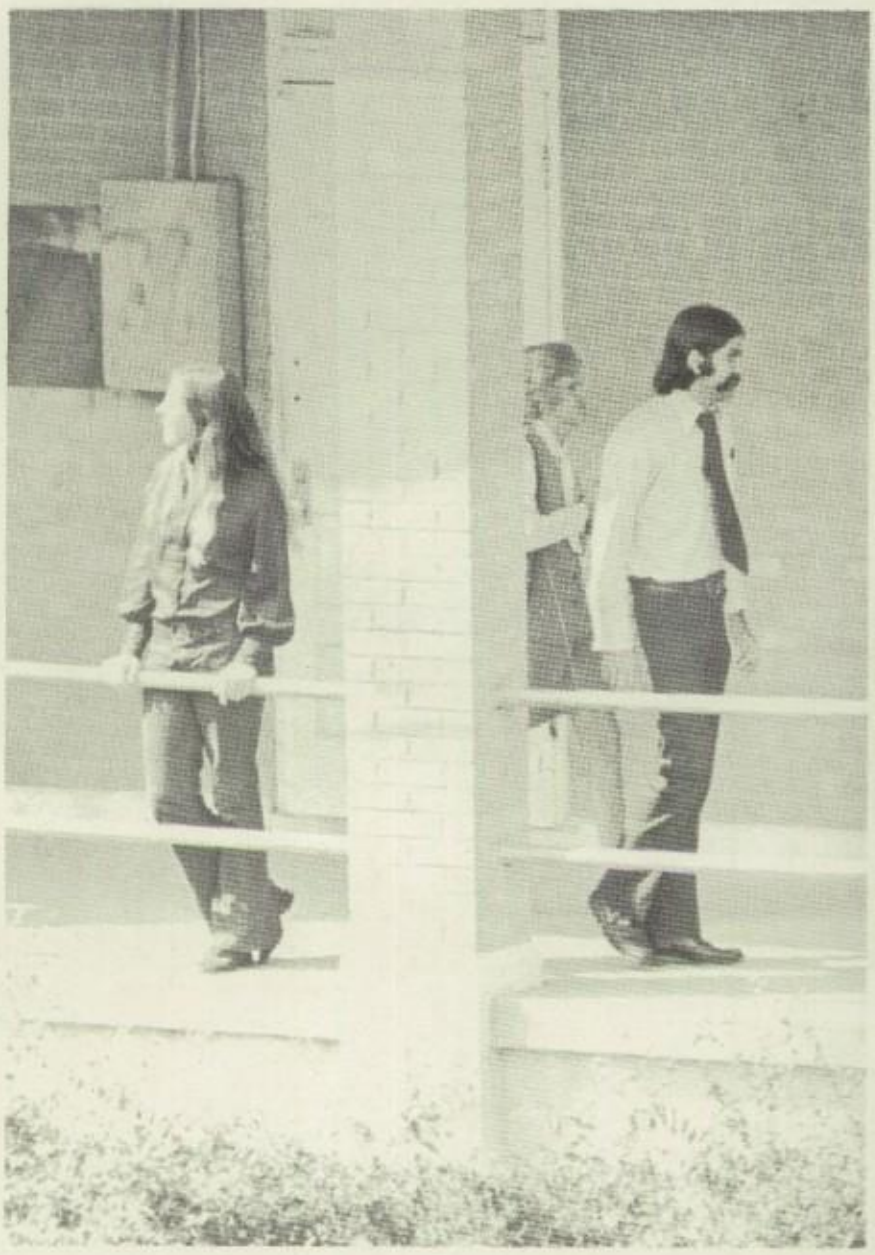
(Entertainment: Darrell and Paul)

. . . To be original is perhaps the most beautiful of all.

-Lenora Heim



I expect to pass through life but once. If there is any kindness, or any good thing I can do to my fellow beings, let me do it now . . .



I shall pass this way but once.

-William C. Gannett

. . . The stars in your sky are the stars in mine and both prisoners of this life are we.
Through the same troubled waters we carry our time you and the convicts and me . . .

from the outside-ward in:
to answer not where but just who I am . . .

These thews that hustle

This brain that fills the

And its humming hive

While in a grove I sate reclined,
In that sweet mood when

Bring sad thoughts to mind.

there is nothing that is not worthy of notice anything noticed is thereby transformed or transfixed into being part of the grand unity which is, was, and will be . . .

. . . looking at people is perhaps the greatest of simple pleasures.
the fascination lies in the fact that people are all alike, yet every person is unique . . .

— William Saroyan

. . . listen to me.
i know you'd rather listen to the voices you relate with, to hear, mix and be one of that little group over there of millions, hidden from the enigma of your character, or yourself, submerged in uniformity . . . hear me . . .

through the confusion of a laughing face, i might reach you through the chaos of the mindless crowds i might reach you . . .

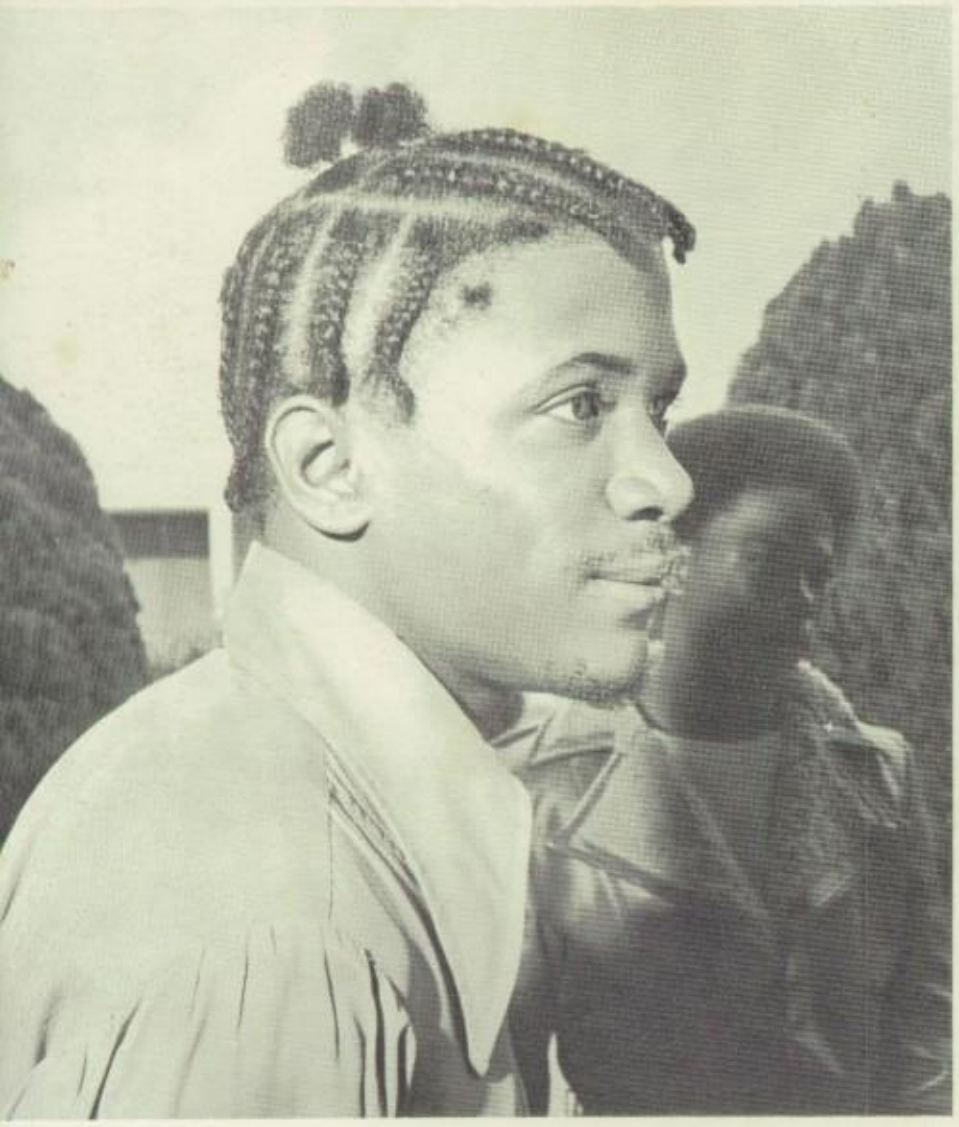
— James Lamoreaux



you, dear reader —
you are amazing grace.

only you and i can help the sun rise
each coming morning
if we don't, it may drench itself out in sorrow.

you —
special, miracolous, unrepeatable, fragile, fearful, tender, lost,
sparkling ruby, emerald jewel,
rainbow splendor person
it's up to you.
